

The Utah Trail

You ask me where I'm go - in' So ear - ly in the dawn.
The crim-son sky of Au - tumn, The fra-grant breath of spring,

I'm just a trav' - ler rov - ing, just a - roam - in' on.
Will lin - ger on for - ev - er, Fond-est mem - ries bring.

I've looked this whole world o - ver, Man - y times I've searched in vain For a
When as a boy I wan-dered To the hills and swim-min' holes Watch at spot that seems like heav - en to me And I long to be a - gain.

ev - en tide the set - ting sun Turn the lakes deep blue to gold.

I'm gon - na hide a - way, Out be - side that U - tah trail.

Moon - light as bright as day Far out on that U - tah trail.
